

Revelations concerning The Seed of Cain

Excerpts of Revelations Found in The Second Book of Commandments

SECTION 25 June 18, 1978

Behold, My son, for I call you My son, for ye have been faithful over the few things that ye have been called to do. And because ye have been faithful over these few things, ye shall be made ruler over many.

2 And ye have asked Me concerning whether it be correct to place upon the seed of Cain My holy Priesthood, and I give unto thee an answer, yea, even a revelation concerning this matter.

3 For have I not said unto thee in a previous revelation that the heads of My church were puffed up in their hearts? For they seek their name in the lights and in print and seek fellowship with the world.

4 And if they repent not, they shall be cast aside as the dross.

5 And they receive revelation but not from Me, saith the LORD, for no man can receive this revelation unless he be living My laws.

6 But they scorn My laws and treat them as naught. They live instead the laws of this world and persecute and ignore those who would live all My commandments and who are My true prophets.

7 How then can they receive revelation from Me?

8 But ye know the source of their revelations.

9 Behold I say unto you, at no time have I given a commandment unto My church, nor shall I, except what I have stated in My previous revelations, that the children of Ham, even the Negro race and all its peoples, should receive My holy Priesthood.

10 For have ye not My revelations before you that state clearly that not even the direct descendants of Ham, who were a righteous and a good people, could receive this blessing because of their lineage?

11 And have I not spoken to My servant Joseph Smith, even your head, that none of this race could or would be ordained to My holy Priesthood until the seed of Abel shall rise above the seed of Cain?

12 And ye know that this has as yet not taken place, for righteous Abel was slain, and his seed still awaits to be born, behold an innumerable host.

13 And have I, Jehovah, not said that any revelation that totally contradicts a previous revelation is not of Me nor can be? For I lie not.

14 Therefore, ye know from whence the revelation came, even from the father of all lies.

15 And according to that prophecy ye made in thy book, which prophecy was from Me, it hath literally been fulfilled, for every word that proceedeth forth from My mouth shall be fulfilled.

16 Behold, I say unto thee that these men (the presidency of My church) came before Me concerning this matter. And because they have not heeded My commandments — nor have they listened to My Servant — I heard them not.

17 And because they desired an answer according to their own carnal desires (for they feared the persecution that they may have received for living My law), the adversary came and spoke sweetly to them. And they were glad for his words, for they were according to their carnal desires. And they heeded his words, and they shall proclaim them throughout the world as a proclamation from God.

18 Behold, I say unto you, I have allowed them to do this, that they may be exposed before the world as frauds and false prophets.

19 For the adversary was the founder of this black race, for he came to Cain after God had taken away his power to procreate the children of righteousness, and showed him how he could place his seed into animals, and the seed of animals into other animals, for he did corrupt the seed of the earth in this manner, hoping to thwart the works of God.

20 And for this reason the earth was destroyed by the flood, to destroy from the face of the earth these abominations which Cain created, for he had corrupted all flesh.

21 And they all sought to do the works of Cain, and he died not, but was slain.

22 But his seed was preserved through the loins of Ham, the son of Noah, and his descendants, and survived the flood.

23 And this knowledge to create these monsters has again been discovered by men in your age, and thus the earth has again become corrupted and nigh ready for destruction.

24 And in the last days the adversary, through the vanity of men, has set up churches like unto his beasts that he created, yea, even like the Sphinx, the Centaur, and the Satyr.

25 For some have the bodies of beasts and faces of men, and some are in the form of man, but have the spirit of the beast; and they shall deceive all but Mine elect.

25 For some have the bodies of beasts and faces of men, and some are in the form of man but have the spirit of the beast; and they shall deceive all but Mine elect.

26 What say ye then about the revelation received by the heads of My church?

27 For the adversary has infiltrated My church and seeketh to become its head.

28 But those who have heeded him shall shortly be exposed by their folly, for My name nor My church shall be mocked longer. For it shall shortly be cleansed and purged and tried in the fire, that all those who profess to know Me and know Me not will be exposed.

29 For these are the false prophets spoken of in My holy scriptures. And they say, "We dwell securely," thinking that the time of visitation shall not come.

30 Behold, I say unto thee, it is nigh at the door; for behold, I come quickly. Even so, Amen.

SECTION 67 March 1981

13 What ye have thought concerning the Negro is correct, for when I brought Adam into the garden of Eden, behold he named all of the animals that were created including the "beast of the field", which were the most intelligent of all animals that were created, for they did walk upright as a man doeth and had the power of speech.

14 Adam and his posterity were given dominion over all creatures God had prepared for them including these beasts, or the beasts of the field.

15 But Cain, Adam's son, seeing their intelligence became confederate with them and instead of having dominion over them became equal with them, subjecting himself to them.

16 Behold I say unto you, Adam was My son and I gave him dominion over all living creatures that had been created according to the pattern of all things in the six periods of time called days.

17 For I created all things that they be subject unto him, including the "beasts of the field", made in the form of man yet having the soul of the beast.

18 I instructed Adam that he should not, nor any of his posterity, have sexual intercourse with these beasts, for the resulting offspring would then be like unto the beasts, yea even less than the beast.

19 And such would be a cursed race, which curse would be an eternal curse, irreversible and unalterable, being a curse by He who is eternal, even God.

20 This Cain knew, yet he chose one from among the beasts of the field to lie with her, and thus I sealed her to him as according to law, and forbade him to take unto himself any from the seed of Adam to wife.

21 Cain's countenance fell, and he rebelled against My word in this matter, for he desired his sister to wife who was promised unto righteous Abel.

22 And for this reason he slew Abel, believing that in the disappearance of righteous Abel, Adam would surely give the damsel unto him as wife in spite of My curse.

23 But behold I revealed the evil act unto Adam and forbade him to give her unto Cain because of the evil work that he had done.

24 And I promised Adam at that time that I would raise up another in Abel's stead for the damsel to marry.

25 Cain was cast out of the society of man, and he was cursed in that his posterity would forever have a dark skin and would become servants of servants, even that they would both bow to man and the beast also, even the Negro whom I had blessed according to the earth, yet forbade him from ever holding the Priesthood which was reserved for the pure seed of Adam alone.

26 Nevertheless, when the seed of Abel shall come forth among the children of men in the latter days, even the righteous seed, and they become a numerous host, behold, those of the seed of Cain who hath been faithful shall I give unto them a portion of the Priesthood, but not all.

27 Unto the pure Negro, they cannot hold the Priesthood, worlds without end, for they need not the Priesthood to perform their duties upon the earth.

28 The seed of righteous Abel cannot come forth until Zion be established.

29 At the time of the flood, when My servant Noah did build the ark according to My instructions, behold there were but eight souls who had not corrupted themselves with the fares of the world, even Noah and his wife, his three sons and their wives.

30 Nevertheless, Ham being otherwise a righteous man desired a descendant of Cain to wife, and because of this he perpetuated the curse in the land.

31 When they gathered together the animals and the beasts of the field to take with them in the ark, behold they chose of every clean animal eight in number, and as the beasts of the field were clean, they chose eight of these who were willing to come to attend them in the ark.

32 Behold I say unto you, that there is no curse upon the Negro race, only when it is mixed with that of the seed of Adam does a curse occur.

33 For the Negro are a noble and intelligent race, being blessed in all manner of material gifts, as artisans, and fine artificers, and in the manufacturing of all manner of useful items, and for labor in the town and in the field, for the benefit of man.

34 For this was the plan of creation, that they would be blessed as a people if they would heed the word of God concerning them.

35 There was no need for this race to receive the Priesthood, for it had no use or place in their lives, being reserved for the seed of Adam only.

36 This is the knowledge of the seed of Cain and his posterity in all his generations, and how he was led by the adversary to disobey My commandments, and how he fell from that which could have been his because of his evil acts, and how he and his race corrupted the earth to where a cleansing was necessary, even the flood, that this evil be destroyed from the face of the earth.

SECTION 78 April, 1982

3 And this I say unto you concerning the seed of Abel who was a man of righteousness, that it was promised unto him that his posterity should not come forth until Zion again be established.

4 For in this way, and in this way only, will a people be prepared to bring forth these choice spirits. ...

12 Then when a woman opens up her heart and gives it completely to a man of God, that woman opens up the sealed portion of heaven where the more righteous spirits dwell which will become the children of righteous Abel.

13 The spirits will then be released unto that family, and that family protected and hedged up unto Me, and they shall be adopted by proxy unto the family of Abel so that his posterity finally come forth.

14 Yet the seed of Cain desires this not to happen, for he doth know that it hath been decreed that they shall be servants and serve the seed of Abel forever.

15 And will not that then be just? For I am a just God and reward every man according to his works.

16 And this I say unto all men that they repent and prepare themselves in humility, preparing their minds and bodies as chosen vessels of God.

SECTION 83 August 1982

Thus saith the LORD unto My Servant. Behold the leaders of My church have lost My holy priesthood in that they can no longer function in it.

2 Yet they still retain it to pass unto someone worthy, but this they will not do, for they believe they still retain it even as Ham would claim it from Noah, yet he lost it because of transgression. ...

7 Thus they have followed in the footsteps of Cain and have taken up the covenant Cain made with the black race.

8 For he promised them the Priesthood through him that he would get their favor.

9 And he married and he took unto himself one of the daughters of the Serpent, who tempted Eve to partake of the forbidden fruit, to seal this covenant and thus he lost his Priesthood.

10 For the leaders of the Church have followed the path of Cain, and thus the prophecy that ye made in the "Parable of the Pear Tree" which saith, "They shall receive the same cursing as Cain", has come to pass.

SECTION 173 March 31, 1992

Behold I your LORD do say unto you at this time: that which ye have read and considered, that was sent to you by the hand of My servant Walther, that possibly should be considered as being of worth among My servants – behold it is not of Me.

2 For is it not written in that which they consider their scripture that My servant Noah mingled his seed with the seed of Cain, by even marrying one of that lineage?

3 And is this not in contradiction to all that has been written concerning the matter?

4 For if Noah had done this, he would have immediately lost his own Priesthood, and he could have retained his salvation and Priesthood only by having his and the blood of his offspring spilled upon the ground as an atoning sacrifice.

5 But this my servant Noah did not do, for is it not written that he was "perfect in all his generations"?

6 For he and his progenitors had mixed not their blood with the seed of Cain,

7 Or even of those who were like unto the seed of Japheth before the flood – who were blessed in many ways, but were not valiant in the ways of the LORD.

8 And thus they had kept their lineage pure and undefiled, and this is what this quotation means.

9 Now his son Ham did marry into that seed, and took unto himself Egyptus, which in the Chaldean language signifies that which is forbidden.

10 Now behold, it would not have been a forbidden act on the part of Ham if he already was part of the mixture of the seeds.

11 For the writings of this man John Bryant were not given unto him by Me, or by any of the hosts of Heaven.

12 And as to the organization calling itself by the name of the "Independent Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints", that perpetuates and supports these things, they are not of Me, neither are they My servants;

SECTION 174 May 18, 1992

Thus saith the LORD unto My Servant. Ye have asked Me concerning the Negro and the seed of Cain, and the effect the action of endeavoring to confer the Priesthood upon their descendants has had upon the church.

2 Behold I say unto you, all those who have totally understood their actions in the matter, and have supported the church authorities in extending the Priesthood to them, behold they have lost their priesthood, and this because of their rebellion against My Spirit and My true prophets.

3 And this makes up the larger portion of My church.

4 And all those who have quietly avoided this issue, and who have waited patiently in the sidelines, not partaking of these matters, but who have kept their hands clean from sustaining the authorities in their actions, and have otherwise endeavored to keep My commandments, behold they retain their priesthood.

5 But all those who have supported wholeheartedly this error, they have lost their priesthood, and have sold their birthright for the glory of the world.

6 For unless they repent with a sore repentance, and confess this error unto the congregation they shall not be numbered among My people, but have taken unto themselves the lineage and curse of Cain, and shall be numbered among his seed in the world to come. Even so, Amen.

SECTION 204 March 27, 1998

31 Now I your Savior do give again unto you some more important knowledge concerning My kingdom, and all that pertains to it;

32 For what you discussed in your meeting, wherein you discovered the significance of the narrative in the History of the Church 1:62, ye discovered a very great truth: that I gave unto Joseph Smith and Oliver Cowdery the Melchizedek priesthood by revelation, for this is the key.

33 For all men who are worthy in the pre-existence are entitled to this Priesthood, and are foreordained;

34 And thus when it is revealed from on high, then they are worthy to take upon themselves that Priesthood that they have been foreordained to, and can use it in this life under the direction of that one appointed.

35 And for this reason all men who undertake to utilize this priesthood must receive it by revelation, and if they receive it in this manner it shall be recognized in the heavens as well as on the earth--

36 And thus these men having their priesthood activated are thus able to act in My name under the direction of their head.

37 And thus revelation is the Key that activates this most holy Priesthood, for no ordination is necessary, for it has already been given to them in the pre-existence.

38 And many men are foreordained to this Priesthood, but fail to live worthy and receive it not, and thus the saying, “many are called, but few are chosen,” for this is the true meaning of this passage.

39 And according to My and My Father’s instruction, none of the seed of Cain or any of the black race, and yet even the mixture of the black races with any other race, are foreordained to this priesthood--

40 Being that it is not required for their salvation that they are entitled to, and that they shall receive if they otherwise live My commandments.

41 And because they are not foreordained, how can one say that they have received revelation for these people to receive this priesthood? Behold, I your Savior do say unto you, it is impossible!

42 And anyone attempting to do this shall have their own Priesthood taken from them, for they have lied before God and man, and anyone who lies unto God forfeits the rights to act in His name.

SECTION 205 August 1998

I your Savior, in accordance with the desires of many to know the reason as to why the races are born into different circumstances, and also as to why the black race require not the Priesthood; behold I will give unto you an answer as to why this is so.

2 In the pre-existence there were many who were faithful in supporting the plan presented by the Savior, wherein all men would be given their free agency to choose the good or the evil.

3 And there were those among them that performed well, wherein they did make the right choices.

4 And these I did make My great ones, which I have before said unto you, that even My servant Abraham was one of these.

5 For have I not said in previous revelations that men are rewarded in this life according to their works in the pre-existence?

10 And again, there were an innumerable host who were less valiant and diligent, and spent little effort to promote that principle;

11 And because they were somewhat rebellious, wanting to change, to some degree, the plan that was presented to them, unto these I did place them on this earth as the Gentiles and heathen nations.

12 And again, there were many others that followed not after the evil one, but yet were indifferent in supporting the cause of freedom, and the plan of the Savior.

13 And because of their stubbornness and rebelliousness I caused them not to be foreordained, for why should the slothful be rewarded for their slothfulness?

14 All spirits are born into circumstances that will best suit and reward their diligence in the pre-existence.

15 And I your Savior say unto you, how then is there injustice? For where, how and through whom each are born is in accordance to their works in the pre-existent state.

23 Behold, I your LORD say unto you that God is a just God, and rewards each according to their own works.

24 For the black race and the interrelated races were given this color and these features that man would recognize them and not mix their seed with theirs;

25 For in so doing they and the resulting posterity would receive the curse that they could not hold the priesthood in this life, neither could they hold it in the life to come.

26 And unto those who endeavor to overrule this just decree, even as Cain endeavored to do, behold they also would take unto themselves this same curse.

SECTION 211 January, 2000

12 For My people are now mixed with the Gentile and the heathen, and in spite of My numerous warnings through My true prophets, have chosen to disregard My word, and have instead heeded the word of the false prophets which say that there is no difference between the races; for it has become like before the flood.

13 And the time soon cometh that these persuasions shall be exposed, and the fierceness of My wrath will commence the cleansing of My footstool.

SECTION 254 February 17, 2012

2 For the time has now arrived that the Gentile Nation shall no longer be numbered among My people Israel.

3 For the Gentiles, who are a mixture of my people and the Heathen, have totally supported the false prophets that are now in power in My Church.

4 For My fierce anger is against them for their changing of the ordinances and the bringing of the seed of Cain into My holy temples, and the building up edifices that are not of Me claiming them to be. In these I cannot dwell.

11 Concerning the seed of Cain they are a mixture of the noble Black races and all other races including Adam's seed.

12 For the pure Black races are not a cursed race but a noble race that need not the Priesthood to achieve their salvation, for by their works shall they be judged.

13 For Cain mixed his seed with this race, and thus took upon him this curse uniting himself with them and partaking of that which was forbidden.

14 For not only was his heritage polluted but also the seed of the Black race was polluted, placing upon the resulting seed burdens that were beyond their capabilities to bear.

15 For did not I your God cause the black race to be black and the white race to be white to clearly identify them so that intermarriage not occur among them?

16 Thus, the seed of Cain was cursed by his seed being forbidden to hold the Melchizedek Priesthood.

17 And, as I promised, this curse shall not be lifted until the seed of righteous Abel come forth among the children of men.

SECTION 257 February 16, 2013

5 For all those in the past, beginning with Cain participated in this thing and because they did, lost their Priesthood.

12 For what ye call pornography has been known among men from the beginning through Cain and Nimrod and has caused the destruction of many of my pure spirits.

13 It is for this reason that the children of righteous Able cannot be brought forth, until all these evils and those who practice such are destroyed from the earth.
