

Knowledge to Identify and Gather Israel Revealed in the Second Book of Commandments

14 For My sheep know My voice, and My sheep are the lost tribes of Israel, and Ephraim is My firstborn and shall be gathered first.

15 Yet I am merciful to all those who repent and come unto Me.

2 ... and ye shall do what I shall command thee that righteousness begin to be brought forth in Israel.

3 For from this time forth, ye shall be called Israel, for to the School and the fountain of truth shall Israel be gathered, for My sheep know My voice and heed My commandments, and those who belong not unto Me are not of Me and shall be cast off.

4 Woe unto those who desire to become a law unto themselves, who heed not My chosen servants.

5 For those who come not through the strait way and narrow gate shall possibly prosper for a while, but will eventually fall.

6 For all must come through this gate, otherwise they shall be deceived and be overcome; and those who seek to come in by any other way shall be counted with the wicked; for there is only one path and one way unto Eternal Life, as I have before shown unto My servant Nephi, for all other ways lead unto the mists of darkness.

7 For ye shall live by every word that proceedeth forth out of My mouth, for such is the iron rod or My word, and all who find it and hang fast to it shall be led through these mists of cunning deceits and priestcrafts and be saved.

11 And thus I make an end of speaking on these matters, for I desire to impart unto you much about the gathering of My children Israel.

12 For it is time that they begin to come forth. For they are lost as to their identity, yet I know them, and will call them forth from their hiding place.

13 And I have shown unto thee some of the whereabouts of these people, and from time to time I will show you more as to where they settled and how they came about where they are today, and how they can be identified among the heathen.

14 For they were taken into captivity, even by the Assyrians and Babylonians, even a great host.

15 For first the Israelites were taken northward even to Halah and Habor and by the Medes and Persians.

16 And the tribes of Reuben, half of Manasseh, Gad, Naphtali, and part of the tribe of Dan were taken captive first, they being on the east side of the Jordan and in an exposed position.

17 And at a time later the other tribes of Israel, excepting Judah and Benjamin, were taken captive and were also placed in this area, even a numerous host.

18 And the tribe of Judah was also taken into captivity, even by the Babylonians and were taken eastward and were dispersed among their cities even a great host.

19 Nevertheless, a few returned under the hand of My servant Ezra, and built again the walls around Jerusalem, and restored the temple and the sanctuary.

20 Nevertheless, the majority remained in Babylon, and were numbered among the Babylonians.

21 And behold, the numerous host of the Israelites that were taken captive by the Assyrians did rebel against them and escaped even northward; and because they were so numerous they did cover the face of the land.

22 And behold a great many of them mingled their seed with the heathen nations that proceeded them.

23 For these heathen people were the descendants of Shem and Japeth who dispersed at the time of the tower of Babel; and the seed of Japeth covering the land north and west and the seed of Shem covering the land north and east.

24 For these sought not valiantly after their God, and became the heathen nations. They being not cursed as the seed of Ham, but they became dark in complexion, and dark in their mind to the word of God.

25 Nevertheless, they being of the seed of Shem and Japeth, they were cursed not that they could not hold the holy priesthood, for only the seed of Cain were thus cursed in this manner, but they could not hold it by lineage, but only if they were adopted into a family already holding the Priesthood, and in this day only if they are adopted into one of the chosen tribes, yea even of the descendants of My servant Jacob-- whom I called Israel.

26 And so were the children of Israel and of Judah scattered among the nations of the heathen, for they openly rebelled against Me, and built unto themselves gods and worshipped them and took unto themselves gods of the heathen nations and worshipped them and thus they committed fornications against Me; and thus I divorced Myself from them and cast them out among the heathen.

27 Nevertheless, I cast them not out of My mind, but promised that I would remember them in the last days.

28 And they migrated westward and northward, yea even a numerous host, and they became a great nation among the heathen nations and among the desolate places and did spread upon the face of the land.

29 And they did rebel against their captors, nevertheless, except for those who returned under the hand of Ezra, none returned to the land of their inheritance, but migrated to the north and to the west, sweeping before them the inhabitants of the land.

30 And because they took few records with them, they soon lost the knowledge of their forefathers, and became a lost people among the heathen.

31 Nevertheless, they retained some of their original customs and they remembered among themselves that they should not intermarry among the tribes, neither should they intermarry among the heathen, yea and because of this belief, some did keep to themselves and did develop different tongues and languages.

32 And those who kept their blood pure are identifiable even today.

33 Nevertheless, there were a great many who mingled their blood with the heathen and became like unto them, dark in mind and complexion.

34 But those few who did keep themselves pure, and defiled not themselves, retained the fairness of their skin and the blueness of their eyes.

35 For this is one of the ways they shall be identified in these the last days.

36 For they did even become the Gentile nations, and scattered themselves throughout the continent of Europe and throughout the islands of the sea.

37 And Ephraim traveled north and separated himself from his brethren and went to the lands of Scandinavia and they did become even this people, and did spread even from England to Russia, and because there were few inhabitants of the land that proceeded them, they did remain more pure.

38 And part of the tribe of Dan did travel even farther north yet they did intermarry with the heathen and became like unto them, and very few of this portion of this tribe can be identified even to this day.

39 And behold Simeon and Levi did I mix among the tribes as I did promise My servant Israel for they did commit an evil because of their anger.

40 Nevertheless, I did identify Levi and placed a mark upon him that he be not lost.

41 For besides the blue eyes and fair complexion, I did place upon their heads a crown of red hair that they may be identified even unto this day.

42 And unto Judah shall the gathering be, for they also are among all nations; nevertheless, the scepter remained in Judah, and the lion of the tribe of Judah remaineth even unto this day, for the royal seed fled to England and Ireland, even before the captivity.

43 And I did bring the choicest of all to this place, even the descendants of the Holy One of Israel, and are ye not one of them?

44 For are they not the elect of this generation as promised they would be, and they shall surely be gathered first.

22 And ye have asked Me concerning the Jews. Behold I say unto you, those who call themselves Jews today are but a small portion of them Jews and are liars seeking to claim the inheritance from My servant Judah, and such as are not Jews shall be exposed and laid bare, and the true descendants of this My servant be made known that they may take their rightful inheritance.

23 And all who claim to be of the blood of Judah who have not a fair complexion and blue eyes are not of Judah. And thus ye may know them.

24 And there be few among them that are pure, having mixed their seed with the heathen.

25 Nevertheless, because of their Israelitish blood they can be adopted into the tribe wherewith they reside and whose blood they carry, that they find an inheritance in Zion-- for did I not say that all nations would be blessed because of the seed of My servant Israel, which descendants ye are?

26 By this means only can they then hold the Holy Priesthood: after having the Gentile blood purged from their veins, then can they be counted among My people.

27 However, this is all based upon their righteousness, for these blessings cannot come upon them unless their desire is to keep all of My commandments.

Section 142 December 21, 1987

...

23 And this I say unto him that he lay his hands upon the head of My servant Tola and purge from his veins and body the Gentile blood that is in him; and this ye shall do before ye make him a counselor in the School.

24 And to purge his blood ye shall say the following:

25 I, (name of person-- in this case Walther) having authority given me of the Father, I place my hands upon the head of (name of person-- in this case Tola) and purge from his body the Gentile blood that dwells therein, that the body no longer be split by dissension, and the veil of darkness be lifted from his eyes. And I hereby adopt you into the tribe of (name of Tribe-- in this case Issachar) of the house of Israel, and from this time forth ye shall be numbered among his seed. Amen

26 Now behold, does not a representative of this tribe again reign upon the earth?

27 Behold I say unto you, are not the bands of ignorance being broken and the dews of heaven being poured forth from the Heavens, and this in spite of the wicked and your unbelief?

Section 147 September 1988

6 For David and Solomon had many wives and concubines, and in the taking of these they sinned not; only when they received wives that were not given unto them by the Father did they sin.

7 And so it is that the true blood of Israel hath this blessing.

8 And this I do say unto you that if ye take unto yourselves of the true daughters of Israel and they receive thee by a true sign and witness, behold they are unto thee as true wives and they are thine and none can take them from thee.

9 And if ye take unto thyself a woman from among the Gentiles; behold, they need not a sign and witness, and if they be willing to be unto thee a concubine, then ye shall take and raise up children from them.

10 And behold I say unto you, here is wisdom; for if a woman being a Gentile bring forth Israelitish children, then even though she appeareth as a Gentile, behold she hath Israelitish blood.

11 Then she can request that her Gentile blood be purged from her, and when she hath had this ordinance done, she can become unto this man a wife for she is then an Israelite, and hath all the rights of an Israelite woman.

12 And she need not a sign, for the man hath redeemed her for a price.

13 And if her posterity continue faithful in keeping My laws and statutes, and they marry from that time forth only those with true Israelitish blood, behold after four generations will they not then bring forth the pure seed of Israel?

14 Nevertheless, in some cases, ten generations must pass before the Gentile blood is indeed entirely purged from them.

17 And now My son, the time has come wherein I will reveal unto you more concerning My lost sheep who have been hidden up among the Gentile and the heathen nations.

18 For I have promised My servant Jacob that what was lost and scattered must surely be found and gathered.

19 And behold, I have made known unto you how Levi should be identified, so also will I identify My servant Judah who was scattered among the nations even among the Israelites who themselves were scattered throughout the heathen nations and who intermarried among them.

20 For those who tower above their brethren of every tribe, and among all nations and people, and who have the signs of the Israelite are surely of this tribe.

21 Yet and if they have not the sign and yet tower above their brethren, behold they have much Gentile blood and cannot be counted of that tribe unless they are proven.

22 And if a man tower above his brethren and hath the sign and also hath the sign of Levi, behold he is of mixed blood, even of the tribe of Levi and the tribe of Judah, yet he will be counted among the tribe of Levi.

23 And yet again, if he tower above his brethren and be left handed, behold he is of the house of Benjamin, yea even of the one-half portion of that tribe that stayed with Judah at the time of the division.

24 Nevertheless, the half of the tribe that went not with Judah are not thus identified for they have their own place.

25 And thus ye have more of the keys that identify the tribes as I have promised.

26 And a woman shall seek a sign and witness to a man, even among their own tribe that each may be identified and stand in his own place.

27 And this shall be the case except it be by direct revelation from Me saith the LORD.

28 Nevertheless, only the righteous and those who totally repent of these tribes shall enter into My rest.

6 And unto My servant Walther, he desireth to know of which tribe he belongs, and behold I say unto you, he is of the house of Ephraim. Nevertheless, he has much of the tribe of Asher in his veins.

7 For the seed of Asher is mainly in the western part of Germany, yea even from the borders of the countries of Denmark, the Netherlands, Belgium, France, Switzerland and the Eastern part of Germany encompass this tribe.

8 Yet there are also many from the other tribes of Israel mixed therein even from the tribes of Dan, Ephraim, Zebulun, Manasseh, Issachar and Benjamin, but the main portion are from the tribe of Asher.

9 And My servant Walther has been desirous to take the truth of My gospel to the Jewish nation, and behold I say unto you that this is correct, for I have not called him to seek out the other tribes, for their time is not yet, unless I call them for a specific purpose.

10 For I will yet call Judah first, for unto him shall the gathering be, for he was scattered among the nations at the time of the dispersion, after My crucifixion.

11 And he fled even to the lands where his brethren had previously gone, even to the lands of western Europe, and they in the main accepted them that were dispersed and they mingled their seed among them, and thus I hid them up .

12 Yet I put a mark upon them that they be identified among their brethren in the latter days.

13 And another mark I did place upon Levi that they also be identified, that they also come forth at this time to offer an offering in righteousness.

14 And behold My son, My servant Joseph Smith was given the keys of the gathering of Israel through the Patriarchal order, wherein each are identified as to who their tribe may be.

15 But I say unto you, that this power has now been lost and they do make a mockery of this gift of discernment for they understand not the other signs that accompany it.

16 And at the time of My servant Joseph Smith, behold I did call forth the tribe of Joseph as a similitude to him being sold into Egypt, which is spiritual Babylon.

17 And he did shine forth for a season and did establish again My Priesthoods and he doth retain it to pass unto Israel's other sons.

18 Nevertheless the sons of Ephraim have become polluted and have corrupted My holy doctrines and there are but few left who are faithful.

19 Yet there shall be sufficient to accomplish My holy purposes.

20 And as he saved his brethren temporarily at that time, so also he shall save his brethren spiritually at this time.

21 And thus My servants have been called who are of the house of Joseph through Ephraim: even My servant Robert and My servant David, and My servant Heber, also My servant Robert², and My servant Edward and My servant Lee. These all be from the house of Joseph.

22 And it is My will that you go unto the people called the fundamentalists, and after ye have completed this mission ye shall leave them alone.

23 And from this time forth ye shall no longer seek out the Gentile, for their time and portion hath been fulfilled; and from this time forth your voice be unto the House of Israel and none else.

24 And ye are to make them aware of their lineage and let them step forward if they so desire.

25 And I call My servant Walther to go to the residue of the fundamentalists and another I will yet call to go with him to replace those who are unable and those who are fallen.

Section 150 May 13, 1989

6 And unto My servant Richard, I His Savior say unto him that much of what he suffers in spirit is due much to the Gentile blood that flows in his veins. For those who came before him in his family took unto themselves wives from the heathen and their descendants ye are.

7 And it is this that causeth the disturbance within thee, and it is for this reason that ye battle continually within.

8 And when ye are given power from on high ye shall be able to purge this blood from the veins of those who are afflicted that they again be the pure blood of Israel, and again be profitable servants unto Me.

9 And I say unto him again that ye were not meant nor called to carry the gospel to the heathen, and for this reason ye were called home from your mission in the church.

10 For it is your calling to carry the truth of the gospel to the Jewish nation, for ye are of that blood and belong unto that tribe, being a descendant of My most faithful of servants.

14 Heed My will O' Israel and be not afraid, for if ye will but do My will ye shall again obtain the former blessings.

Section 159 January 9, 1990

9 For I have many things yet to reveal pertaining to the gathering of Mine Israel.

10 Yea, for those ye now call Lamanites, or the descendants of Laman and Lemuel in the land called North America, even in the nations ye call United States, Canada, Mexico and Central America, and for which ye have set aside reservations for, behold they are in the most part a mixture of their seed.

11 For some of their descendants did indeed migrate to this land from the lands south which ye call South America, and mixed their blood with the heathen which had come previously from other lands.

12 And thus the gospel was first preached to these Gentiles along with the Gentiles that came at a later time.

13 And thus the prophecy was fulfilled that the last would be first, and the first would be last.

14 And after the sealing of the heavens against them for their rejection of the fullness of My gospel, and their unbelief, behold the fullness of the gospel would be taken from amongst them and I would seek the true blood of Israel wherever they existed.

15 Behold I say unto you, the people ye now call Indians are the pure blood of Israel only if they have the signs of Israel, neither are the members of My church of the pure blood of Israel unless they also have the signs of Israel, for they also are a mixture.

16 Therefore, ye shall no longer raise thy voice unto them, for their time has been fulfilled, whether they are of the church or of the Indian nation, it is the same, for they are both a mixture; and ye shall raise thy voice only to those who have the true sign, whether in the church or out of the church, it is the same.

17 And the true signs have been given to you in part, and when ye are prepared the other signs shall be given unto thee.

18 For the true Lamanite resideth only in the South, even in the land ye call South America, yea and even there are some in the land ye call Central America.

19 Nevertheless, they are in the most part in South America, yea and they are the true descendants of My servants Laman and Lemuel, and yet a few of My faithful servant Joseph, in the which I promised that his seed would not utterly be destroyed.

20 And I will yet reveal more unto you concerning this matter that ye have all the keys and knowledge necessary that Israel shall surely be gathered.

Section 163 October 5, 1990

3 And I have accepted the ordinances performed therein, that the Gentile blood was purged from the veins of a few;

4 And behold, if they are faithful, they shall go forth as witnesses that they are truly of the House of Israel, and represent My servant upon the earth in these last days.

5 Rejoice and be exceedingly glad! for from this beginning shall go forth the gathering of Mine elect among the House of Judah-- and thenceforth to all the tribes that have been lost and hidden.

...

9 For are ye not Israel, and are ye not the beginning of the gathering of My scattered nation?

10 And am not I your Savior, restoring the laws of Israel that ye may again live them accordingly, that ye may again be acceptable unto Me?

13 Yea and some have marveled as to what has happened in the Middle East as ye now call it.

14 Behold I say unto you that My servant George Bush is of the lineage of My servant Ephraim and of My servant Judah, and has the right to the leadership of this nation.

15 And from this time forth I will not bless the Gentile, nor the heathen, in their efforts in dominating those who are the children of My faithful servant Jacob, for they shall not prosper against them.

16 And for this reason I gave unto My servant George Bush wisdom, and this also unto his commanders, that they were able to inflict great destruction upon the enemy and incur little unto themselves.

17 Therefore, I have blessed them on this occasion; yet they shall not boast in their own strength, but give glory unto their God.

18 Nevertheless, he obeyed not, nor heeded all the commandments that I gave unto him.

19 For did I not instruct My servants to write a communication unto them?

20 And did they not instruct him in this communication to make every effort to take the life of Saddam Hussein?

21 For is he not worthy of death? Yea and even his commanders who willingly do his works, and carry out his instructions, behold I say unto you, are they not also worthy of death?

22 And because he heeded not My word through My servants, have not these men continued to do their most evil work, and have not untold thousands of the innocent suffered and died by the instrumentality of their hands in the land ye call Iraq?

23 But in ancient times it was called by the name of Babylon.

24 For this place from the time of Nimrod hath continued to bring forth the most evil of men, and the most evil temporal wickedness; and thus I have nearly caused it to be totally destroyed.

25 Nevertheless, this is but a foreshadowing of what is yet to come; for from this time forth, war shall multiply unto war;

26 Yet there shall be calm for a small season.

27 Then shall desolation fall upon desolation until the utter destruction of the wicked shall be accomplished.

28 Then shall I expose all lies, yea and I shall expose all evil deeds, yea and I shall expose all hypocrisies.

29 Yea, and when a man doeth evil it shall even be shouted upon the housetops.

30 Yea, and none shall be able to hide their evil before another, and the wicked shall be astonished and be ashamed.

31 And those who are Mine and who have been faithful in that day shall be lifted up unto Life Eternal.

32 And thus I have said I will bless My children Israel and bring them forth from obscurity, and if they deal honestly, and are worthy, they shall have power from on high to build up My Zion and My Kingdom.

Section 169 July 12, 1991

28 And unto the faithful in Germany, I am well pleased with their efforts.

29 Yet beware of contentions, for the adversary doth rage to know that his kingdom is being exposed.

30 And for this reason, he doth desire to destroy thy harmony.

31 And in this ye shall be not surprised, for when My Israel begins to repent, behold his kingdom is weakened.

32 And he taketh hold of every man's weakness and flails him with them as with a whip; therefore, be as men of God and resist his temptations.

33 As I have said before, "Gird up thy loins and place upon yourselves the whole armor of God."

34 For those that whine and find fault are not men, but are but whimpering babes.

35 For true men of My servant Israel seek not their own will, but the will of God.

36 Know ye not that ye are Mine Israel, and if ye repent of your gross unbelief, I, your Savior, will heal your wounds and ye will again be unto Me as My children?

37 Then shall ye come forth to be taught of My true prophets, and not any more by the false prophets who now reside at the head of drunken Ephraim.

38 Judah come forth! Be no longer ashamed of thy height, for ye that tower above thy brethren have not I your God preserved ye as a nation in this manner?

39 Take up the sword of My word, and make it sharp.

40 Divide asunder the correctness from the error, and slice up the error in slices, and show it unto all, its rottenness and putrefaction.

41 Be not afraid, for I, your Savior, was not sent unto the heathen, but unto the lost tribes of My servant Israel.

2 Yea, for I speak unto you all that ye may repent, yea even the few that have been called;

3 For now I call a few that ye be totally cleansed, that ye be an example to those that follow.

4 For those that follow are My true Israel, and they will heed not a faltering voice, but only a voice proven and true.

5 And even though I speak unto you all, I also speak unto you individually, that ye may individually repent and turn from your errors.

21 And now I come to those who reside in the country called Germany, and the countries round about.

22 Behold, they wonder at their leanness of number. Behold, they understand not that they are few because they also must be purged of all their sins, that they may be no longer a light to the Gentiles, whose time has been fulfilled, but a light to My true Israel.

23 For their light must shine in a clear and precise manner to overcome the darkness of error and deception that now encompasses My true people-- yea, even the descendants of My servant Jacob, whom I called Israel, who fought a good battle and overcame all.

24 For the darkness that covereth their eyes can only be pierced by the perfect truth of My gospel, and the living of it by the few I have called by My voice.

Section 172 November 24, 1991

3 Therefore I say unto you, that there are many points of doctrine which must be made more clear unto this people; for they are slow to understand and comprehend what I have already revealed unto them.

4 For although a woman is redeemed when she bareth Israelitish children, and if she truly desireth it, she may have her blood purged from all Gentile blood, and become truly of the blood of My servant Jacob;

5 However, in the case of a man, if he sire Israelitish children from an Israelitish woman, he remaineth yet a Gentile;

6 And as concerning the Ozondah, he cannot at any time take precedence over an Israelite.

7 Nevertheless, he may have all other blessings of an Israelite, that the promises on their behalf may be fulfilled.

Section 175 June 19, 1992

My son. It is pertinent that ye write that which I reveal unto you at this time; for it pertains unto those subjects that will bring salvation unto My people Israel.

2 For the School of the Prophets that hath been set up is the Educational arm of My Zion, and it needs be that all truth be gathered by it for the benefit of My people.

Section 198 August, 1995

My son, ye have wondered concerning the great difficulties the blood of Israel have in being obedient to My laws and living My commandments.

2 Behold I your Savior say unto thee, it is due to the great amount of Gentile blood they have in their veins.

3 For it is this blood that causeth them to not be diligent, and negligent.

4 For the true blood of Israel desireth light and knowledge of the truth so that they can prepare themselves through works to gain Eternal Life;

5 And conversely, the Gentile blood seeketh to satisfy the desires of the flesh.

6 And these two factors ply within them to first seek good, and then to seek after error.

7 And thus ye see those around you struggle this way and that way, being in conflict with themselves.

8 Yet if they totally choose the right, which is called repentance, I their Savior shall forgive them, and will give them light and knowledge to overcome their sins; which in the main is rebellion against the truth.

9 And I their Savior wait for their sincere commitment so that the veil be lifted and the healing commence.

7 And again ye have wondered at the words of My servant Isaiah, wherein he stated that the wild and carnivorous animals will no longer search out each other to destroy.

8 Behold I say unto you that these are but symbols, and an explanation of these sayings are made in the next paragraphs of My servant Isaiah's writings, showing that these animals depict the different tribes of Israel which have been warring among themselves;

9 And at this time these tribes will no longer seek to ravage each other, but be reconciled, which reconciliation will result in their imminent power to govern in righteousness, which will bring peace on earth.

10 At this time they will no longer reject Me their Savior, but will accept the sacrifice I made on their behalf, and accept the Lamb of God, and no longer reject the truth, but will embrace it with one voice.
