

Revelation given to Frank Miller on August 30, 1982

Introduction: On Saturday, August 28, 1982, I was discussing the keys of the Priesthood with my son Jeff, when the Spirit came over me. The Spirit revealed the order of the Priesthood, and that the keys and authority were part of the Priesthood. That there were offices or positions in that Priesthood, as the Lord's house is a house of order-- and those positions had power or keys only if the Priesthood bearer was worthy, and received direct revelations. I never wrote this revelation down, but there followed long discussions, and a search of the scriptures. On Monday, August 30, 1982, I proceeded to put the revelation on paper, as I remembered it. I was having some difficulty in writing down the revelation from memory. The natural mind has no ability to interpret the mind of God. So, seeing that it was beyond me in the natural state to put the revelation down on paper by memory, I bowed my head in prayer and asked God to give the revelation to me again. The Spirit came over me, and said, "Be still and know that I am God." I was then given the following revelation, of which contained the revelation of the Saturday before, and even more was revealed, for I was given answers to other questions which had been on my mind.

1 Every Melchizedek Priesthood holder, or those who have had the Holy Priesthood properly conferred upon them, hold the keys to administering all the ordinances, and the building up of My kingdom on this earth.

2 My house is a house of order, and there is an order to all things. Because those keys and powers are held by each man does not mean that it is My will for any or all of those keys to be used by any particular Priesthood bearer.

3 When I give a revelation to My people, and they follow that revelation, then their works are of Me. But when men seek to follow their own hearts, and use their authority to build a church or organize a new branch, they do these things as men, and their works are of men, and will be torn down in the last days.

4 Thus, because of the wickedness which comes amongst the Mormon people, their times are fulfilled. They are a house of confusion, and have gone against two of the highest principles in My teachings, namely the law of consecration and plural marriage.

5 Because this people have gone from following My will to follow after the ways of the world, they have lost their authority, and the keys that went with that authority.

6 For no man has any authority or keys unless he is following My will and My counsel.

7 How can a man know My will unless he receives My will by the Spirit of the Holy Ghost?

8 For those of you who have been driven, and cut off from those who have set themselves over you, I have a special work. I have commanded you in times past not to start a new church. There is wisdom in this, for would I start a new church, and organize My church amongst those who have already rejected Me? No.

9 First must come repentance, and then, when it is My will, I will organized those who will be called by My name-- who know My voice.

10 Only after repentance can come the blessings of the church in its fullness.

11 The fullness is not to be found in the different groups. For did I not instruct you to not join those groups, for they are out of order?

12 The time is now for the calling of repentance. Have I not spoken plainly on this subject many times? Have not My previous revelations been very clear as to what your work is, and that you were not to start a new church?

13 I might go to any man I choose and call that man to reorganize and establish My church on this earth. What more power and authority does any man need than to be called by My voice? By My authority does that man hold all the keys-- for the keys are My authority or My will.

14 The Holy Priesthood holds the rights to administer in the spiritual things of heaven and earth. That priesthood has all the authority and keys to do My will.

15 But man has thought that I would give those keys to one man, and that he alone held those keys. Oh the blindness of this generation.

16 Was not that man appointed, Joseph Smith, to receive that position, and this according to My will?

17 This is the order of the priesthood, and the offices contained therein; this that there would be one head and purpose, and thus fulfill My will, and not have the confusion of many heads.

18 If a man is appointed as head to administer My will, then that man must remain pure or no longer will he hear My voice, and thus he could no longer hold those keys.

19 Would all things within My church come to an end because one man had fallen from his position? No.

20 For was not My revelation in the Doctrine and Covenants, Section 107, very clear on this matter? For I have stated that each office has equal authority when the higher office is not present.

Revelation given to Frank Miller on August 30, 1982

21 Thus if the head should fall because of the weaknesses of flesh then those who have proved themselves would then appoint another.

22 If a man appoints another to a higher office in My priesthood, it must be done according to My will. For good men were to rule over this people.

23 Those men were warned numerous times in revelations to them that if they did not live the higher laws of My priesthood they could not rule over My people.

24 Wickedness runs rampant amongst My people. For this reason have their times been fulfilled.

25 Their leaders, because their women and children rule over them, have gone the way of the world. What good that they do now, I count as an honorable man.

26 I will prove those who will stand by My side by their willingness to follow My will.

27 Each and every man must have the gift of revelation, or he is of the world-- for My sheep know My voice.

28 There should be not confusion amongst those who are My people. If the whole church were to fall away, and a man or woman here or there were to remain true, I would reveal My will unto them, and they would come out of the midst of them who have corrupted My house, and do the works assigned to them.

29 Confusion will cause this people's downfall.

30 My church is not being built amongst this people. Many of you search here and there for the keys, and for the power of the priesthood.

31 Thus many in their weakness have not developed their own spiritual gifts.

32 Know this: that the keys are contained within each man. They are the keys of knowledge and power that I give those who are obedient to My will.

33 There are no keys or authority where My voice is not heard.

34 Thus if I say, "Call this people to repentance", then that is that man's calling. And that man has My authority or keys to do My will.

35 If a man has not the gift of revelation, and on his own begins to call a people to repentance, then he should first get the beam out of his own eye. For no man can do My work without knowing My will.

36 There are many of you who have your feelings and your dreams, and you believe in your goodness, and believe that My way is the way of man.

37 My kingdom is a kingdom of power, and when I speak the power of the Holy Ghost will bring the sure knowledge, without any doubt as to where that knowledge came from.

38 Would I send My servants out in mass confusion with only a hopeful feeling they call a revelation? No!

39 That men do so and stumble in their beliefs is because they do not have My authority, nor My commission.

40 First a man or woman must be pure in heart, for those that are not would become sons of perdition.

41 I will only reveal My will to those who I know will do My will.

42 Prove yourselves, and continue to grow in those areas of weakness which could also bring you down.

43 You have been chosen, but that does not mean that you may go here and there according to your own hearts desire.

44 Follow My will, and you will lead many back into My presence-- for that is your calling, and you have My approval and My help.

45 But you must be aware of the adversary, and know that he has continually sought to destroy you and thus bring an end to a mighty work and a wonder.

46 I am pleased that you have followed My will in not joining any of the groups, or starting a new church, for therein Satan would have brought much hardship against you.

47 I will fight your battles if you follow My will; if you do not you will be left to the buffetings of Satan.

48 My servants are clean, so gird up your loins and become perfect-- for the days are coming that many will turn to you for counsel in the ways of the Lord.

49 For those who believe that because they hold all the keys of the priesthood, and seek to build up a following by exercising those keys, I say amen to the priesthood and authority of that man, along with all the keys.

50 For no key can be used unless it is My will that it be used. Therefore, My will be done, not man's. For man being imperfect seeks to build for himself, and brings about his own destruction.

51 Unless this people speedily repent they will not be prepared for the forthcoming destruction. Where are My cities, where are My holy places?

52 There would be no need for refuge places if this people would remember Me with their hearts. But alas, man in his weakness must many times be chastised by famine and bloodshed.

53 For those of you who hear My voice, where are your refuge places? Are you who know prepared for the great and mighty day of destruction which will soon be upon you?

54 How much more will you lament at that day, for you have known, and for your weaknesses have had discord and hatred destroy your efforts.

Revelation given to Frank Miller on August 30, 1982

55 I love you, and have heard your cries for knowledge. Now surely you must know that it is your work to build a place of safety, a place where you and your seed will be protected.

56 You too have been unmindful of My will, for you thought I would open the door for you without your labors.

57 If you who call Me by My name do not take these warnings you have received in time past to your hearts, you will fall with the Gentile nations.

58 Organize yourselves, not as a church, but as a priesthood body, and set yourselves as an example to those who might come to you. For in numbers there will be strength, and there will My Spirit be if you will be pure in heart.

59 Set yourselves a committee to oversee this work, and by common consent organize the funds to do this work.

60 There must be a head, and there must be those who follow that counsel. This can only be accomplished by righteousness.

61 For those who seek unrighteous dominion, and to live off the labors of others should have no place with those calling Me by My name.

62 Consecrate your efforts and talents for this work, for if you do no labor while you yet have the time, you will find that the season is past for your labors, and you will be driven in the forests with packs on your backs.

63 You will live as the wild animals, and you will remember that My counsel was just, and you will raise up your voice to the heavens, and lament your hard lot in life and die.

64 I can do no more than give you the future course of events. Upon you and those who are My sheep is required the labors to preserve yours and those in your charge.

65 Seek for good men to bring those men to the knowledge of the work to be done.

66 If those men cannot be found, who are aware and are willing to do the labor, then you will know the condition of this people, and know that the cleansing is at the doors.

67 Man is that he might have joy. My revelations are the way to that happiness.

68 You have My promise if you do My will. You should know that My will is not being done by the works which have not been done which would preserve a remnant of this people.

69 This people have their free agency, and have used their right to bring their own destruction upon their heads.

70 Seek no more for who has the keys, for then you are led by the adversary. Seek only to know My voice, for then you will be given My will and the authority to do a great work amongst this people. Even so, Amen.

This revelation of Frank Miller is mentioned in the Second Book of Commandments:

2BC 90 February 5, 1983

My son, I your Savior do give unto you a revelation that ye will heed in all haste, for what ye have read tonight by the hand of My servant Frank is of Me, and the commandments contained therein are valid.

2 Ye shall point out to My servant that I have already given him a commandment and a charge that he need not hesitate longer; for I have supplied the means for the fulfilling of the commandments I have given him.

3 For the Priesthood organization I referred to is the School of the Prophets, and he now has the men, howbeit they are few, to accomplish the work I have commanded him which he knoweth about.

Brother Miller did not accept the Second Book of Commandments, but gathered with his family and friends eventually to near Yost, Idaho. He was an excellent professional artist, and prospered at his work. For a time he and his family put out a Newsletter called "THENCO" which contained his teachings and other of his revelations. He passed away on February 24, 2000 after fighting cancer for two years.
